

South Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, EDITOR.

HOPKINSVILLE, JAN. 9, 1888.

We are authorized to announce Prof. H. B. Wayland, of Cadiz, as a candidate for County Judge of Trigg county. Election August 1888.

We are authorized to announce Capt. Ralph Sheldon, of Nelson county, as a candidate for re-election as Register of the Land Office, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1888.

Hon. J. Proctor Knott.

This gentleman has served his constituency in Congress twelve years, and it is perhaps not too much to say that no Representative from Kentucky ever made a record more honorable to himself or more creditable to his native State. Trained in the old Democratic school of strict construction, and identified with the common mass of his fellow citizens by birth, by fortune, by association and sympathy, his career has been distinguished, not only by the sternest fidelity to the constitution of his country, but an able and fearless advocacy of the interests of the people, against every encroachment of revolutionary factions, every scheme of corruption, and every demand of extravagance, while not even a breath of suspicion has ever tarnished his public or private character.

He was admitted to a seat in the Fortieth Congress in 1867; he was placed at the foot of the committee on Mines and Mining, but this obscure assignment did not prevent him from speedily asserting his superiority in the new arena to which he had been chosen. His first speech was in favor of the admission of his colleague, Hon. Jno. Young Brown to his seat, which for purity of diction, cogency of reasoning and accuracy of learning has rarely been equaled in any forum and which placed him in the front rank of constitutional lawyers in the House.

His next effort was in opposition to Mr. Stevens' suffrage bill, which showed him as much at home in the broad field of statesmanship, as in the more limited sphere of legal disputation. His masterpiece, however, was an argument delivered during the second session of the Fortieth Congress, in opposition to a bill to punish ex-Confederate soldiers for holding office State or Federal, without having been relieved by Congress from their so-called disabilities, which won for him the highest encomiums of the scholars and jurists of the country, and which has been pronounced by competent critics as one of the most remarkable specimens of forensic logic in our language.

In the Forty-first Congress Mr. Knott was placed upon the committee of the District of Columbia, and Private Land Claims, in both of which he rendered valuable service to the country by his resistance of numerous schemes of extravagance and corruption. In this Congress he delivered his celebrated "Duluth" speech which not only made his name a household word among English speaking people everywhere, but has been translated into almost every language in Europe. Yet remarkable as that famous effort is universally admitted to be, Mr. Knott had only the session before delivered a speech on the wasteful extravagance of Congress, which although far less celebrated, is thought by many to be fully equal, if not superior to it, not only in beauty of diction, but in the pungency of its satire, and the brilliancy of its wit. These two speeches did more than anything else to call popular attention to the recklessness of public expenditures, and to arrest the profligacy of the period.

Upon the organization of the Forty-fourth Congress, Mr. Speaker Kerr appointed Mr. Knott Chairman of the Judiciary committee, and well do the legislative annals of that memorable period attest the wisdom of that choice. His lucid and lawyer-like arguments in relation to the distribution of the Geneva award, his masterly defense of the jurisdiction of the Senate on the impeachment of Secretary Belknap, or in fact almost any of his numerous reports as Chairman of the committee would have been sufficient to sustain his already well earned reputation, but it was upon the various, exciting and momentary questions growing out of the count of the Electoral vote, that he became most conspicuously distinguished, and it is perhaps not going too far to say, that had his counsel prevailed, our country would not have been disgraced by the presence of a fraudulent usurper in its chief executive Magistracy. Thoroughly convinced not only that the so-called Electoral bill would result in defeating the will of the people, as expressed at the polls, but was a most dangerous violation of the Constitution, Mr. Knott opposed its passage in one of the ablest speeches of his life, refusing even to vote for any of the so-called commissioners, or to take any part whatever in organizing the machinery by which it was to be carried out.

As an indication of the estimate which is placed upon the ability and integrity of Mr. Knott by those acquainted with his merits, it may be noticed that Mr. Randall twice placed him at the head of the Judiciary Committee, notwithstanding Mr. Knott had each time opposed his own election to the Speakership, and that the present Speaker gave him the first place in the minority of the same committee. The length to which this article has already reached gushed gentleman has impressed himself upon the legislative history of the country during the last three Congresses, but it would be incomplete without calling to mind his remarkable report on the constitutional power of Congress to provide for a judicial trial of a title to the Presidency, his grand speech on the provision in the Army bill, for the removal of troops from the polls, or his last great speech on the removal of causes from State to Federal courts, or the many defense of the interests of the people, in his minority report last summer in favor of restoring to the people the land grant to the Northern Pacific railroad, either one of which would be sufficient to win for its author an imperishable reputation, yet notwithstanding this long list of distinguished services, which might be extended much farther, we are told by those who know Mr. Knott most intimately, and have heard him speak most frequently, that he never parades his own merits on the stump, or alludes to anything he has done, as a claim to popular favor or political preferment. We have made this hurried and imperfect review of his public record because the effort is made by some to create the impression that he is merely a brilliant wag or jolly humorist, when in fact he is one of the ablest and best equipped statesmen, as well as one of the profoundest constitutional lawyers, in the country.

Mr. Knott's private character is as reproachable as his public record is brilliant—and take him all in all, he will make one of the very best Governors the State of Kentucky has ever had.

AND SO FORTH.

Henderson is to have a variety theatre and John Lyne is happy.

Owensboro has a new fellow factory and the girls are in a flutter of excitement.

Oscar Wilde and the old year have gone. The sunflower disciple sailed for France during the holidays and threatened to return again.

A carpenter named Vetter, probably a Veteran in crime, killed a stone mason named Sezer, in Webster. Et tu Vetter.

Goy Stephens, of Georgia, has averaged one pardon a day since he went into office and Kentucky's "beloved physician" is green with envy.

The Marquis of Lorne is now in the United States. Maybe some of our girls would consent to be a "maiden all for Lorne," if Mark is a marriageable young man.

A list of Goy Blackburn's pardons will shortly be published and will make a book of 350 pages. Life is so short that if the Governor will pardon us we will not undertake to read it all.

Geo. W. Childs, editor of the Philadelphia Ledger, and the writer were the only two newspaper men, so far as we know, who distributed $5,000 worth of presents among their employees. Mr. Childs gave the amount in money and valuables and we gave it in advice.

Since Tom Cannon and Zeno Young have inaugurated their villainous system of misrepresentation and persecution, in their efforts to give us notoriety as being unreliable in matters of love, Joe Muhlbach has hung his head in shame, left the State and gone to Texas.

Don Cameron, the republican "Boss," is advertising for a lost dog that answers to the name of "Jack." It would be well for him, while his hand is in, to advertise for a lost state that answers to the name of Pennsylvania.—Breckenridge News.

Or a lost party that answers to the name of "Republican."

Robt. Y. Thomas, Jr., editor of the Muhlenberg Echo is a candidate for the Legislature. He is a bright young fellow, fearless in supporting what he believes to be right and is a Democrat true to every principle and tenet of the party. We hope to see him elected. Jones the present Republican Representative has been heretofore regarded as invincible, but he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Wilbur F. Browder, of Logan county, has withdrawn from the race for Attorney General. He would have carried this county beyond a doubt and his chances were very good for receiving the nomination. He was the most capable man on the track. His withdrawal and Hon. Ed. W. Turner's death, leaves only two candidates—Dick Jones and Watt Hardin.

The Park City Times has changed from a tri-weekly to a daily. Jno. Gaines sometimes displays more enterprise than good judgment, and we are afraid this is one of the times.

The State Central and State Executive Committees of the Democratic party will meet in Louisville to-morrow to fix a time and place for holding the next State convention.

Marshall T. Polk, State Treasurer of Tennessee, and a nephew of President Polk, has defaulted to the amount of $500,000 and skipped out to parts unknown.

Gambetta the great French orator and statesman died before day light Jan. 1st.

Phil Thompson is the only one of Kentucky's Congressmen who is in favor of Blackburn for Speaker.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally. It acts directly upon the blood and the mucous surfaces of the sys-

KENTUCKY CULLINGS.

Madisonville is to have a new depot.

Burglars are operating in Madisonville.

John Rhodes col. was killed by the cars at Smith's Grove.

Jas. W. Lynn was killed by the cars at Georgetown.

The Columbus Herald is one of the very best papers in the Purchase.

A. X. Kinkelhoe had his safe burglarized of $800, at Hardinsburg.

Jas. Lair, of Lincoln county, was killed by the cars.

A large grey eagle was shot and killed in Clark county, last week.

The house of Bud Richardson in Hardin county was burned and two of his children perished in the flames.

E. O. Hawkins, sheriff-elect of Franklin county failing to give bond Jno. W. Gaines has been appointed in his stead.

John Stroud murdered Geo. Rose col. at Central city, Dec. 24 because Rose assisted the Marshal in arresting him some weeks ago.

Jas. Sinclair, of Breckenridge county, is 6 feet 2 1/2 inches tall weighs 192 pounds and is only 16 years old.

A young man named Ferguson shot and killed a negro named Logan Gordon, at Nortonville, Christmas day, in self-defense.

The times says Jno. P. Cook and Robert and Chas. Bradley got into an altercation at Madisonville Dec. 31st. Cook shot Chas. Bradley in the hip with a pistol and Robert Bradley shot Cook from behind with a shot gun; neither of them was dangerously hurt.

Trimble county, Kentucky, has had local option for years. The majority of the people are neither rich nor poor. There is an average of comfort rarely found. The people in the main are Baptists and Democrats. The largest Republican vote ever cast in the county was sixty-eight. This was given to Garfield. For four years there has not been a single prisoner in the Trimble county jail—Madison Courier.

Chas. F. Wing, city attorney of Princeton, shot and killed W. R. Cruger, city Marshal Dec. 29th. Wing was drunk and disorderly. Cruger had arrested him and as they were ascending to the police court room, Wing drew his pistol in the darkness, thrust it over his shoulder against Cruger's face, who was behind him, and fired killing the officer instantly. He fired four other shots in the same way as he went up the steps. The murder was without a shadow of justification and the citizens of Caldwell county have raised money to assist in the prosecution of the murderer. He will be defended by Messrs. Darby and Duvall of Princeton and W. H. Vest of Greenville. Wing is in jail.

CASEY.

A general changing around of hired hands for the new year.

Walter and Robert Williams from Elkton are visiting R. Burr's.

Misses Bessie and Willie Lloyd who spent the holidays at home returned to Glasgow Monday the last inst.

Clarence Kennedy of the New Era staff paid a brief visit to friends here Christmas eve. Every body is glad to see him when he comes.

We had a noisy Christmas here but with few exceptions every thing passed off without any trouble or warfare.

A party with plenty of capital will soon visit the station to select a site for a merchant flouring mill. Let all enterprising people give him a cordial welcome.

Porter Peyton who has been confined to his bed on account of too many Christmas dainties is slowly recovering and soon will be out again.

There was a party given at Mrs. Lafayette Bowles, on the evening of the first, and every one present said it was a truly enjoyable occasion.

"Shake" and "Miss Laura" know how to make their guests happy.

Tom Garnett and Miss Fanny visited friends in Hopkinsville during the holidays. They returned home Monday the last inst.

Mr. Cy. Foster from Columbus Kansas, is visiting his sister Mrs. L. C. Bowles. He reports business of all kinds flourishing out there, and is very much pleased with his location.

Misses Ellen Garnett and Belle Henry left Tuesday last for a visit to friends in Paducah, Ky.

Another lot of colored citizens with their Lanes and Penates left for Mt. Vernon, Ills. Tuesday, last.

Mrs. Saunders from near Clarksville, Tenn, is visiting her daughter Mrs. I. H. Ford.

Your correspondent heard the deputy post master repeating the poem beginning "Mary had a little lamb". Inquiring about the fact that he was trying to keep from saying "bad words" because some one had mailed a lot of letters and put the stamps on their upper left hand corners.

CADIZ ITEMS.

Seventeen inmates in the Trigg county poor house.

As an evidence of Trigg's morality she has not an inmate in the county jail.

The drawing of the Kentucky Telephone on last Thursday was immense and entirely satisfactory to its subscribers.

The business men of this place are making an effort to establish a daily mail route to Princeton, by Wallonia.

The recent importation of diamond pins worn by many of the young men hereabouts, presents the dazzling brilliancy of a tinship in July.

The Paducah Times, an honest Republican paper, has ceased to visit its subscribers at this place. Gone to dwell with the angels.

The community has a young man or two who would be happy to play son-in-law in a well regulated family, that would take religious example as part pay for board.

Success to the South Kentuckian, may it live to record a thousand Democratic victories, and as many

MACEDONIA.

Christmas passed off quietly with about the usual amount of marriages.

Mr. J. R. Fuller is erecting a new store house at his old stand near here.

Messrs. Forbes & Thompson are moving their saw mill to Bowling Green.

Mr. J. R. Fuller has abandoned the credit system, and we bespeak for him a successful career.

Mr. Jno. White and his son, H. M. White, returned to their homes in Tennessee this week.

Humbug hung out her stocking and caught old hymen, and the result is, it would take two sheets of legal cap to contain even a brief sketch of all the marriages that have been in this neck of woods since our last writing, however we will give a few hints. Skipped out to Tennessee on the 24th night, Mr. W. Lewis and Miss Armstrong and Mr. Will Green with Miss Nannie Nighbors. Spliced by Esq. Fuller on the night of the 24th ult., Mr. Williams of Chattanooga, Tenn., to Mrs. Pattie Taylor; also on the night of the 24th ult., Mr. K. D. Nichols to Miss Della Powell, of Caldwell county.

Every one that gets married just boils down our chance just that much, however we shut our eyes to the consequence and wish them a long and happy life.

ROUGH AND READY.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Fenn & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

South Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. REACHAM, EDITOR.

HOPKINSVILLE JAN. 9, 1883.

We are authorized to announce Prof. H. B. Wayland, of Cairo, as a candidate for County Judge of Trigg county. Election August 1883.

We are authorized to announce Capt. Ralph Sheldon, of Nelson county, as a candidate for re-election as Register of the Land Office, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1883.

Hon. J. Proctor Knott.

This gentleman has served his constituency in Congress twelve years, and it is perhaps not too much to say that no Representative from Kentucky ever made a record more honorable to himself or more creditable to his native State. Trained in the old Democratic school of strict construction, and identified with the common mass of his fellow citizens by birth, by fortune, by association and sympathy, his career has been distinguished, not only by the stern fidelity to the constitution of his country, but an able and fearless advocacy of the interests of the people, against every encroachment of revolutionary factions, every scheme of corruption, and every demand of extravagance, while not even a breath of suspicion has ever tarnished his public or private character.

He was admitted to a seat in the Fortieth Congress in 1867; he was placed at the foot of the committee on Mines and Mining, but this obscure assignment did not prevent him from speedily asserting his superiority in the new arena to which he had been chosen. His first speech was in favor of the admission of his colleague, Hon. Jno. Young Brown to his seat, which for purity of diction, cogency of reasoning and accuracy of learning has rarely been equaled in any forum and which placed him in the front rank of constitutional lawyers in the House.

His next effort was in opposition to Mr. Stevens' suffrage bill, which showed him as much at home in the broad field of statesmanship, as in the more limited sphere of legal discussion. His masterpiece, however, was an argument delivered during the second session of the Fortieth Congress, in opposition to a bill to punish ex-Confederate soldiers for holding office State or Federal, without having been relieved by Congress from their so-called disabilities, which won for him the highest eulogiums of the scholars and jurists of the country, and which has been pronounced by competent critics as one of the most remarkable specimens of forensic logic in our language.

In the Forty-first Congress Mr. Knott was placed upon the committee of the District of Columbia, and Private Land Claims, in both of which he rendered valuable service to the country by his resistance of numerous schemes of extravagance and corruption. In this Congress he delivered his celebrated "Duluth" speech which not only made his name a household word among English speaking people every where, but has been translated into almost every language in Europe. Yet remarkable as that famous effort is universally admitted to be, Mr. Knott had only the session before delivered a speech on the wasteful extravagance of Congress, which although far less celebrated, is thought by many to be fully equal, if not superior to it, not only in beauty of diction, but in the pungency of its satire, and the brilliancy of its wit. These two speeches did more than anything else to call popular attention to the recklessness of public expenditures, and to arrest the profligacy of the period.

Upon the organization of the Forty-fourth Congress, Mr. Speaker Kerr appointed Mr. Knott Chairman of the Judiciary committee, and well do the legislative annals of that memorable period attest the wisdom of that choice. His lucid and lawyer-like arguments in relation to the distribution of the Geneva award, his masterly defense of the Jurisdiction of the Senate on the impeachment of Secretary Belknap, or in fact almost any of his numerous reports as Chairman of the committee would have been sufficient to sustain his already well earned reputation, but it was upon the various, exciting and momentary questions growing out of the count of the Electoral vote, that he became most conspicuously distinguished, and it is perhaps not going too far to say, that had his counsel prevailed, our country would not have been disgraced by the presence of a fraudulent usurper in its chief executive Magistracy. Thoroughly convinced not only that the so-called Electoral bill would result in defeating the will of the people, as expressed at the polls, but was a most dangerous violation of the Constitution, Mr. Knott opposed its passage, refusing even to vote for any of the so-called commissioners, or to take any part whatever in organizing the machinery by which it was to be carried out.

As an indication of the estimate which is placed upon the ability and integrity of Mr. Knott by those acquainted with his merits, it may be noticed that Mr. Randall twice placed him at the head of the Judiciary Committee, notwithstanding Mr. Knott had each time opposed his own election to the Speakership, and that the present Speaker gave him the first place in the minority of the same committee. The length to which this article has already reached upon your favorite subject, is a tribute to the high regard in which he is held by the people.

guished gentleman has impressed himself upon the legislative history of the country during the last three Congresses, but it would be incomplete without calling to mind his remarkable report on the constitutional power of Congress to provide for a Judicial trial of a title to the Presidency, his grand speech on the provision in the Army bill, for the removal of troops from the polls, or his last great speech on the removal of causes from State to Federal courts, or the many defense of the interests of the people, in his minority report last summer in favor of restoring to the people the land grant to the Northern Pacific railroad, either one of which would be sufficient to win for its author an imperishable reputation, yet notwithstanding this long list of distinguished services, which might be extended much farther, we are told by those who know Mr. Knott most intimately, and have heard him speak most frequently, that he never parades his own merits on the stump, or alludes to anything he has done, as a claim to popular favor or political preferment. We have made this hurried and imperfect review of his public record because the effort is made by some to create the impression that he is merely a brilliant wag or jolly humorist, when in fact he is one of the ablest and best equipped statesmen, as well as one of the profoundest constitutional lawyers, in the country.

Mr. Knott's private character is as reproachable as his public record is brilliant—and take him all in all, he will make one of the very best Governors the State of Kentucky has ever had.

AND SO FORTH.

Henderson is to have a variety theatre and John Lyne is happy.

Owensboro has a new fellow factory and the girls are in a flutter of excitement.

Oscar Wilde and the old lady have gone. The sunflower disciple sailed for France during the holidays and threatened to return again.

A carpenter named Vetter, probably a Vetter-an in crime, killed a stone mason named Sezer, in Webster. Et tu Vetter.

Gov. Stephens, of Georgia, has averaged one pardon a day since he went into office and Kentucky's "beloved physician" is green with envy.

The Marquis of Lorne is now in the United States. Maybe some of our girls would consent to be a "maiden all for Lorne." If Mark is a marriageable young man.

A list of Gov. Blackburn's pardons will shortly be published and will make a book of 350 pages. Life is so short that if the Governor will pardon us we will not undertake to read it all.

Geo. W. Childs, editor of the Philadelphia Ledger, and the writer were the only two newspaper men, so far as we know, who distributed $5,000 worth of presents among their employees. Mr. Childs gave the amount in money and valuables and we gave it in advice.

Since Tom Cannon and Zeno Young have inaugurated their villainous system of misrepresentation and persecution, in their efforts to give us notoriety as being unreliable in matters of love, Joe Mulhatten has hung his head in shame, left the State and gone to Texas.

Don Cameron, the republican "Boss," is advertising for a lost dog that answers to the name of "Jack." It would be well for him, while his hand is in, to advertise for a lost state that answers to the name of Pennsylvania.—Breckenridge News.

Or a lost party that answers to the name of "Republican."

Robt. V. Thomas, Jr., editor of the Muhlenberg Echo is a candidate for the Legislature. He is a bright young fellow, fearless in supporting what he believes to be right and is a Democrat true to every principle and tenet of the party. We hope to see him elected. Jones the present Republican Representative has been heretofore regarded as invincible, but he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Wilbur F. Browder, of Logan county, has withdrawn from the race for Attorney General. He would have carried this county beyond a doubt and his chances were very good for receiving the nomination. He was the most capable man on the track. His withdrawal and Hon. Ed. W. Turner's death, leaves only two candidates—Dick Jones and Watt Hardin.

The Park City Times has changed from a tri-weekly to a daily. Jno. Gaines sometimes displays more enterprise than good judgment and we are afraid this is one of the times.

The State Central and State Executive Committees of the Democratic party will meet in Louisville to-morrow to fix a time and place for holding the next State convention.

Marshall T. Polk, State Treasurer of Tennessee, and a nephew of President Polk, has defaulted to the amount of $500,000 and skipped out to Paris unknown.

Gambetta the great French orator and statesman died before day light Jan. 1st.

Phil Thompson is the only one of Kentucky's Congressmen who is in favor of Blackburn for Speaker.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally. It acts directly upon the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. Next sale Jan. 1st.

KENTUCKY CULLINGS.

Madisonville is to have a new depot.

Burglars are operating in Madisonville.

John Rhodes was killed by the cars at Smith's Grove.

Jas. W. Lynn was killed by the cars at Georgetown.

The Columbus Herald is one of the very best papers in the Purchase.

A. X. Kinchellor had his safe burglarized of $800, at Hardinsburg.

Jas. Lair, of Lincoln county, was killed by the cars.

A large grey eagle was shot and killed in Clark county, last week.

The house of Bud Richardson in Hardin county was burned and two of his children perished in the flames.

E. O. Hawkins, sheriff-elect of Franklin county failing to give bond Jno. W. Gaines has been appointed in his stead.

John Stroud murdered Geo. Rose col. at Central city, Dec. 24 because Rose assisted the Marshal in arresting him some weeks ago.

Jas. Sinclair, of Breckenridge county, is 6 feet 2 1/2 inches tall weighs 192 pounds and is only 10 years old.

A young man named Ferguson shot and killed a negro named Logan Gordon, at Nortonville, Christmas day, in self-defense.

The times says Jno. P. Cook and Robert and Chas. Bradley got into an altercation at Madisonville Dec. 31st. Cook shot Chas. Bradley in the hip with a pistol and Robert Bradley shot Cook from behind with a shot gun; neither of them was dangerously hurt.

Trimble county, Kentucky, has had local option for years. The majority of the people are neither rich nor poor. There is an average of comfort rarely found. The people in the main are Baptists and Democrats. The largest Republican vote ever cast in the county was sixty-eight. This was given to Garfield. For four years there has not been a single prisoner in the Trimble county jail—Madison Courier.

Chas. F. Wing, city attorney of Princeton, shot and killed W. R. Cruger, city Marshal, Dec. 29th Wing was drunk and disorderly. Cruger had arrested him and as they were ascending to the police court room, Wing drew his pistol in the darkness, thrust it over his shoulder against Cruger's face, who was behind him, and fired killing the officer instantly. He fired four other shots in the same way as he went up the steps. The murder was without a shadow of justification and the citizens of Caldwell county, have raised money to assist in the prosecution of the murderer. He will be defended by Messrs. Darby and Davall of Princeton and W. H. Yest of Greenville. Wing is in jail.

CASKY.

A general changing around of hired hands for the new year.

Walter and Robert Williams from Elkton are visiting R. Burr's.

Misses Bessie and Willie Lloyd who spent the holidays at home returned to Glasgow Monday last just.

Clarence Kennedy of the New Era staff paid a brief visit to friends here Christmas eve. Every body is glad to see him when he comes.

We had a noisy Christmas here but with few exceptions every thing passed off without any trouble or warfare.

A party with plenty of capital will soon visit the station to select a site for a merchant flouring mill. Let all enterprising people give him a cordial welcome.

Porter Peyton who has been confined to his bed on account of too many Christmas dainties, is slowly recovering and soon will be out again.

There was a party given at Mrs. Lelaette Bowles, on the evening of the first, and every one present said it was a truly enjoyable occasion.

"Snake" and "Miss Laura" know how to make their guests happy.

Tom Garrett and Miss Fanny visited friends in Hopkinsville during the holidays. They returned home Monday the 1st inst.

Mr. Cy. Foster from Columbus, Kansas, is visiting his sister Mrs. L. C. Bowles. He reports business of all kinds flourishing out there, and is very much pleased with his location.

Misses Ellen Garrett and Belle Henry left Tuesday last for a visit to friends in Hadenburg, Ky.

Another lot of colored citizens with their Lanes and Ponates left for Mt. Vernon, Illa. Tuesday last.

Mrs. Saunders from near Clarksville, Tenn, is visiting her daughter Mrs. I. H. Hord.

Your correspondent heard the deputy post master repeating the poem beginning "Mary had a little lamb." Inquiring developed the fact that he was trying to keep saying "bad words" because some one had mailed a lot of letters and put the stamps on their upper left hand corners.

SALLIE.

CADIZ ITEMS.

Seventeen inmates in the Trigg county poor house.

As an evidence of Trigg's morality she has not an inmate in the county jail.

The drawing of the Kentucky Telephone on last Thursday was immense and entirely satisfactory to its subscribers.

The business men of this place are making an effort to establish a daily mail route to Princeton, by Waltonia.

The recent importation of diamond pins worn by many of the young men hereabouts, presents the dazzling brilliancy of a tinsmith in July.

The Paducah Times, an honest Republican paper, has ceased to visit its subscribers at this place. Gone to dwell with the angels.

The community has a young man or two who would be happy to play son-in-law in a well regulated family, that would take religious example as pay for board.

Refused to the South Kentuckian, may it live to record a thousand Democratic victories, and as many

MACEDONIA.

Christmas passed off quietly with about the usual amount of merriment. Mr. J. R. Fuller is erecting a new store house at his old stand near here.

Messrs. Forbes & Thompson are moving their saw mill to Bowling Green.

Mr. J. R. Fuller has abandoned the credit system, and we bespeak for him a successful career.

Mr. Jno. White and his son, H. M. White, returned to their homes in Tennessee this week.

Huntburg hung out her stocking and caught old Hymen, and the result is, it would take two sheets of legal cap to contain even a brief sketch of all the marriages that have been in this neck of woods since our last writing, however we will give a few hints. Skipped out to Tennessee on the 24th night, Mr. W. Lewis with Miss Nora Armstrong and Mr. Will Greer with Miss Nannie Neigh bors. Spiced by Esq. Fuller on the night of the 24th ult., Mr. Williams of Chattanooga, Tenn., to Mrs. Pattie Taylor also on the night of the 24th, Mr. M. K. D. Niles to Miss Della Powell, of Caldwell county.

Every one that gets married just boils down our chance just that much, however we shut our eyes to the consequence and wish them a long and happy life.

ROUGH AND READY.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

Good vegetables and beautiful flowers can not be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seeds business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

STATEMENT OF THE BANK OF HOPKINSVILLE, ON THE 31ST DAY OF DECEMBER, 1882.

RESOURCES:
Notes and Bills discounted	$ 367,131.47
Suspended Debt in suit	2,935.55
REAL ESTATE:
Land and City Property for Debt	10,155.63
Banking House	10,412.00
CASH:
Exchange due from Banks and Bankers	$ 111,490.51
Cash in Vault	26,045.27
Revenue Stamp Account	253.07
Capital stock paid in	$ 250,000.00
Contingent Fund	61,077.85
Dividends:
Due to Depositors	$ 22,587.13
Due to Banks and Bankers	17,911.32
Dividends Unpaid:
No. 22	$ 40.00
No. 23	156.60
No. 24	16.08
No. 25, this day	10,030.00
Gross earnings for six months, ending Dec. 31st, 1882	$ 9,555.00
Paid U. S. and State Taxes	3,754.55
Amount Dividend No. 24, 30-day	10,000.00
Amount to Contingent Fund	1,825.96
	$ 18,102.71

No deposits standing over five years unclaimed.

JAMES A. WALLACE, Cashier.
COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, Christian County.
Subscribed and sworn to before me January 1st, 1883.

M. H. NELSON, J. E. JESUP.

NELSON & JESUP,
Tobacco Warehousemen and General COMMISSION MERCHANTS.
Railroad St. Hopkinsville, Ky. Liberal Advance on Produce in Store.
Dec. 19-25-82m.

S. G. BUCKNER, JOS. C. WOOLDRIDGE.

BUCKNER & WOOLDRIDGE,
Tobacco Warehouse,
Main Street, Hopkinsville, - - Kentucky.
Special Attention paid to Inspection and Sale of Tobacco.
Liberal Advances Made on Tobacco in Store.
SALES EVERY WEDNESDAY.
All tobacco advanced will be insured at owners expense. All Tobacco not advanced on will be insured also at owners expense, unless we have written orders not to insure. After sold it will be held at risk of the buyer.
Dec. 19-25-82m.

WHEELER WAREHOUSE,
Wheeler, Mills & Co., Prop's.,
RUSSELLVILLE STREET,
HOPKINSVILLE, - - KENTUCKY
(Dec 19)

J. C. & J. K. GANT,
PLANTERS WAREHOUSE,
Tobacco Warehousemen & Commission Merchants,
HOPKINSVILLE, - KENTUCKY.
(Dec. 8 1882-83m)

EDWARD WILDER'S
Never fails to cure Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Colds and Flu, It will Cure Scurvy, Biliousness, Headache, Stomach Troubles, Indigestion, and all the ailments of the system. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and is sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine.

STOMACH BITTERS
Never fails to cure Stomach Troubles, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Colds and Flu, It will Cure Scurvy, Biliousness, Headache, Stomach Troubles, Indigestion, and all the ailments of the system. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and is sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine.

THE LOUISVILLE
Cotton, Grain and Provision Exchange,
Boys and sells Grain, Provisions, Cotton and Stocks on quotations received every 2 minutes from the New York and Chicago Markets by SPECIAL WIRE. Send or write for our circulars, giving full information how to make your trades. Address,
T. J. HODGEN, Managers.
401 Main, Corner Fourth Avenue.
Nov 14 '82 3m

J. DOLINGER & CO.,
IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN
CHINA, GLASS & QUEENSWARE, GERMAN, FRENCH AND ENGLISH
FANCY GOODS,
No. 318 South side Market street, between Third and Fourth streets,
Louisville, Kentucky.
LAMPS. (Nov. 14-'82-3m) CHANDLIER'S.

Hopkinsville Marble Works,
ANDREW HALL, Proprietor.
FINE FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC MARBLE, MONUMENTS, HEADSTONES

South Kentuckian.

HOPKINSVILLE, JAN. 9, 1883.

Our rates have been reduced to $1.50 strictly in advance and all papers are stopped when the subscription expires. Experience has taught us that this is the proper way to conduct a newspaper. We force no man to take the paper after his time is out.

SOCIALITIES.

Mrs. Pauline Lander has been quite sick for a week or more.

Mr. R. B. Rozell and family have moved to Nashville.

Mr. Wm. L. Waller is now to be found behind the counter in Mr. J. D. Ware's store.

Rev. E. L. Powell returned last week from a visit to Nashville, where he preached on the 31st ult.

Miss Carrie Pendleton, of Pembroke, spent last week in the city, the guest of Miss Edith Payne.

Mrs. W. T. James, Miss Mattie White and Mr. Wm. C. Slaughter, of Trenton, came down to the show Thursday night.

Mr. Palmer Graves has been engaged as assistant book-keeper in the bank of Hopkinsville. Johnny Campbell, Jr., has also taken a position in the same bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Parrish, Mrs. Kinsbrough and Miss Clara Stacker came up from Oak Grove Thursday to attend the theatre.

Misses Annie and Little Waller two of Hopkinsville's charming young ladies, returned to their home Wednesday evening, after a pleasant visit of several weeks to friends in New Providence. Tobacco Leaf.

55 Weddings in December.

C. Long & Co. to Miss Mary B. Pyle. Gustave A. Hill to Miss Fannie C. McCallie. Henry H. Harkins to Miss Anna Hester. T. J. Brasher to Miss Ruthie White. Geo. T. Jordan to Miss Sue S. Perkins. A. J. Fugate to Miss Belle Cooper. J. F. McCreath to Miss Sarah K. Dasher. David H. Clark to Miss Annie K. St. John. L. L. Wright to Miss Christine Simmons. W. L. Harrison to Miss Julia Smith. W. B. Dillman to Miss Jennie K. Thompson. J. H. Solomon to Miss Mary E. Aldridge. E. C. Johnson to Miss Josephine Carnall. Henry C. Baker to Miss Martha M. Owens. Chas. Williams to Miss Fannie Taylor. John Walker to Miss Annie Walker. T. W. Long to Miss Rebecca C. Kistner. Geo. T. Miller to Miss Miranda C. Griffin. C. F. Smith to Miss Maria Tompkins.

Orange Jones to Matilda Coleman. Geo. Garrett to Maria Hatcher. B. F. Francis to Jane Oates. Albert H. Woodruff to Laura Hatfield. Lawrence Bell to Alice Edwards. Jas. Payne to Alice Washington. Wm. Rice to Annie Roy. Wilson Thomas to Lizzy Green. Jas. Moore to Elizabeth Hough. Alex. Hart to Ellen Bryan. John Pendleton to Florence Lee. Calvin White to Lucille Quarles. Wallace T. Jones to Susan Kistner. Jas. White to Lizzy Rogers. Thos. Thomas to Bettie Grant. Foustalia Edwards to Emma Brown. Jas. Coleman to Millie Wright. Noah Quisenberry to Mauda Butler. Wardell Quisenberry to Millie Butler. Henry Preston to Lou Harrison. Morris Skayton to Hannah Lander. Chas. Parker to Henrietta Cross. Jas. McCreath to Susan Morris. Ben Morrow to Fannie Clement. Simon Bryant to Agnes Hurt. Tony Northington to Bettie Turner. Jas. McCreath to Martha Campbell. Pleas. Rickman to Sue Tandy. Guy. Orlman to Mary Linton. Henry Wheeler to Maggie Woodruff. Wallace Pollard to Lizzy Griffin. Frank Knight to Emma Green. Wm. West to Georgia Henry. Joe Campbell to Catherine Johnson. Joe Tandy to Millie Lewis. Thos. Ferguson to Lucy Lattimore.

$500 Bet.

John T. Wright, a young Main street merchant, has entered into a compact with E. A. Pike, proprietor of the European Hotel, to eat thirty partridges in thirty days. The stake amounts to $1,000, $500 a side, and a forfeit of $50 a side has already been put up. Mr. Wright is to eat one bird a day for thirty consecutive days, and can have them cooked in any way and eat them any time he pleases. Mr. Pike is to furnish the birds and have them cooked. The eating will begin this week, as soon as enough birds are procured. Bets are already being made on both sides. Mr. Wright is confident of winning and Mr. Pike doesn't seem to think for a moment that he will lose his bet.

275.

Weddings in the County During The Year 1882.

	White.	Colored.	Total.
Jan.	10	9	19
Feb.	7	10	17
Mar.	6	10	16
April	9	6	15
May	7	13	20
June	13	9	22
July	5	4	9
August	8	12	20
Sept.	5	11	16
Oct.	12	15	27
Nov.	14	13	27
Dec.	19	26	45
Total	120	155	275

This is against 280 in 1881 and 305 in 1880, so it will be seen that the weddings are getting to be fewer and fewer every year.

Dr. W. M. Fuqua returned last week from Nashville where he had been to secure a new outfit of surgical instruments to replace those lost in the fire. He now has a complete outfit of the latest and most improved instruments and will make a specialty of surgical practice. He is one of the most skillful surgeons as well as one of the best physicians in Western Kentucky. See his card in another column.

HERE AND THERE

W. F. Patton, Life Insurance.

Norwood & Gant, fire insurance.

Miss Mollie Martin, fire insurance.

The Public Schools now have 478 pupils.

Don't forget that we keep all kinds of paper bags.

We have for sale a scholarship in the Evansville Commercial College. 800 marriage licenses have been issued in Christian county since Jan. 1st, 1880.

Several couples of young people were entertained at Mr. Ben S. Campbell one evening last week.

Meas. Jas. Breathitt and H. J. Stites have formed a co-partnership for the practice of law.

Sam Hawkins the leading barber of Hopkinsville is still to be found at his old stand over Hopper's drug store.

Trade water (Dawson) is excited over the alleged discovery of gold in paying quantities. It was found in black sand at a depth of four feet.

If you swear, swear by your country, if you steal, steal away from bad company and if you drink, drink good liquor at L. T. Gant's & Co's hotel bar.

Mr. A. G. Johnson, lately with J. D. Ware, of this city, has moved to Rensselaers Springs and gone into the general merchandise business. He is a clever, reliable young man, of steady habits and good business qualifications and we trust he may succeed beyond his most sanguine hopes.

Meas. Galt and Bros. have just opened up a saloon in the Phoenix Hotel bar-room which is first-class in all its departments. Their outfit is entirely new and everything is of the very best. Their stock of liquors will embrace the best brands of whiskeys, brandies, wines, cigars, etc., etc.

Meas. Taylor & Rsa, a new firm have just opened up a full stock of hardware, tinware, glassware etc. in the room lately occupied by Galt's saloon. His stock being nearly altogether new, and having more room than before, his house is a handsome one than ever. See what he has to say in another column.

The old and reliable warehouse firm of Buckner & Woodruff comes to the front this week with a conspicuous advertisement. They are among the oldest, most experienced and successful warehousemen of the city and farmers who intrust their tobacco to them may rest assured that they will be fairly and squarely dealt with. They are now building a magnificent new brick warehouse to be ready for the next season.

We frequently receive postal cards asking us to send the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN and wait till persons "come to town" for the subscriptions to be paid. Once for all we wish to say that we cannot take subscriptions except for the cash. There is no use having a rate unless we go by it. We want subscribers but we must have the money in advance. Send money or postage stamps in a letter and we will return receipt and ticket and take pleasure in sending the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN to any one who wants it.

Meas. Forbes & Gant open the Ball for 1883 with the contract for the Bank of Hopkinsville. This is to be a handsome three story brick, something on the order of the "one more unfortunate." In the great stride made by the city within the last eighteen months, and in the large amount of building it has involved the above firm has been an important factor. Nor is it yet on the wane. Its business has increased year by year until a superior establishment of its kind cannot be found in this part of the State. We congratulate it upon the basis it has reached, and wish Meas. Forbes & Gant a prosperous New Year.

The competitive drill at the Court-house Tuesday night came off as per announcement. Twenty-one members of "Co. D." competed for the honor of wearing the elegant $30 gold medal belonging to the company. The drill was conducted by Capt. Smith and was witnessed by a number of spectators. One by one the soldiers went down and each time the serried ranks were closed until finally Sergeant C. E. Trice, Private H. W. Clark, Private Frank McCarroll and Sergeant W. S. Feland stood as the surviving "Big 4." A few more commands were given and Sergeants Trice and Feland went down and only two remained. Excitement got to fever heat as command after command was given and Capt. Smith gave a wrong command. McCarroll attempted to execute it but Clark remained unmoved and thereby won the medal. Private Clark deserves especial praise as he is one of the "raw volunteers" of the company and many of his competitors had drilled in military schools for years before becoming members of "Co. D." He has made rapid progress and the shout that greeted him when he won showed that his comrades regarded it as well awarded.

Mr. R. W. Henry inserts his card this week as an attorney and counselor at law.

The only genuine imported champagne in the city is to be found at Lou Galt's Hotel bar.

The finest liquors and best cigars in the city at L. T. Gant & Co's new saloon in Phoenix Hotel.

Mr. Jno. B. Knight, of Chicago, formerly of this city, was married a few days since to Mrs. S. C. Marshall, of Chicago.

Three hundred and twenty delivery boxes have been put up in the post-office, in addition to the sixty lock boxes already put up.

The Quarterly Meeting for Crofton circuit, will be held at Bethlehem, by Rev. Geo. R. Browder, next Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 13th and 14th.

John Brice, the brakeman whose leg was broken at Petersburg, Dec. 31st, died last week at his home at Crofton. The limb was amputated by Dr. W. M. Fuqua, but the wounded man never recovered from the shock and it was evident from the first that he could not live.

To-morrow evening at half past seven o'clock Father Lambert will begin his first discourse on Spiritualism at the Opera House. He will lecture also on Thursday and Friday evenings on Darwinism and Science and Religion. Being a most able speaker and a man of profound erudition, there is no doubt but that his lectures will be highly entertaining and instructive.

The following officers of James Moore Lodge No. 233, A. & F. M., Newstead, were elected at the last meeting, for the year 1883: Arthur M. Henry, W. M. Ben Carter, S. W. Thomas W. Baker, J. W. Joe E. Story, Treasurer. Jas. W. Carlos, Secretary. W. G. Blaine, S. D. Frank W. Macrae, J. D. J. F. Ford, S. & T.

Mr. Ed T. Campbell, of this city, a student of the Lebanon, Tenn., Law School, was married Dec. 21st 1882, to Miss Alice Pennebaker, of Lebanon. The wedding was not only romantic but rather on the chaste order. He married at the residence of the officiating minister, took his wife to her mother's and then came home to spend the holidays with his parents. After his return the matter was made public through the Nashville papers and his parents wrote to him and he replied that the report was true. He will continue his law studies till June. Mr. Campbell is a well known and popular young gentleman and his friends were much surprised to hear of his marriage.

A Shooting Scrimmage. A difficulty occurred in the Keno room Friday night, which came very near proving a tragedy. Mr. J. M. Tandy, proprietor of the billiard room, and Mr. Louis Solomon, became involved in an altercation which resulted in the striking of the former by the latter. Bystanders interfered and Tandy was put out and the door locked. He came back to the door in a moment and upon being refused admittance fired three shots through the door at the parties who were holding it on the inside. One of the bullets passed through the clothing of Mr. Robt. Guyon, at his stomach and struck a match-box and lodged in his vest pocket. His escape was a very narrow one.

Several persons were in the room and it is almost miraculous that somebody was not hurt, as the room was a very small one. Mr. Tandy was considerably bruised about the face.

Both parties to the difficulty were arrested, and tried Saturday morning. Tandy was fined $20 and costs, and Solomon $5 and costs. Several amusing incidents occurred during the fight. Some parties jumped out at the window, twelve or fifteen feet from the ground, and some who were unable to get out were frightened out of their wits.

On January 2d, 1879, Mr. Will T. Tandy and Miss Ermine E. Stoner were married. Mr. Tandy was the popular book-keeper in Buckner & Woodruff's warehouse, and was one of the steadiest, most moral, reliable and universally esteemed young men in the county. He had just attained his majority and the future looked bright and promising.

Miss Stoner was just out of school, young beautiful and accomplished. They were members of two of the first families of the county, and both were consistent members of the Baptist church. Mr. Tandy built a nice new residence on South Main street and for three years or more their home was a happy one. About a year ago their first child, a bright little fellow two years old, died, and the death of the child fell with terrible force upon the mother. This, added to bad health for a time, made her moody and dejected, until last fall her friends realized that she was losing her mind. Some three months ago it became evident that her reason was gone. Every effort that a loving husband, kind friends and the best medical skill could suggest, was made to drive away her melancholy, but to no avail. She was afflicted with an insane desire to die, and neither her devotion to her husband, her love for her child, only a few months old, or the kind and sympathetic attentions of loving friends could alter her determination. She was pronounced insane, and a strict watch was kept over her and she was thwarted in several attempts to take her life. She frequently declared her intention to do so in spite of the vigilance of her friends, and last Saturday night she succeeded. It seems that she had made all her preparations for that particular night. Mr. Tandy went out after supper to attend to some business, and she had him good-bye in a most affectionate manner. All of the members of the family were absent except Mrs. Clarke, who lived with her, and Mr. J. D. Tandy, her father-in-law, an old gentleman quite feeble. About 10 o'clock she gave her baby to the nurse and in an unusually cheerful voice remarked that it was "about time for Willie to be back," and walked first to the window, as if to listen, and then to the door and before she could be intercepted quickly opened the door and darted out into the darkness. She was followed and the alarm given, but she eluded her pursuers and was soon lost in the darkness. The night was very dark, not a star shone in the heavens and her dark clothing made it impossible to see her at a distance of ten feet. In an incredibly short time fifty men with lanterns were scouring the city, searching along the banks of the river and all over the city but she could not be found.

About 1 o'clock, while Dr. F. H. Clarke and Mr. Bailey Water were looking about in the large front yard of Mrs. Wallace, almost opposite Mr. Tandy's house, Dr. Clarke saw something flash in the gleam of his lantern. He looked again, went closer, and it proved to be a ring upon the finger of the object of his search. Throwing the lantern to the limb of an apple tree, in sight of her home and in a few steps of the street, she was found and taken down—dead. She had taken a stout piece of domestic, made a loop in one end, placed it around her neck, stood upon a low limb and tied it to one above, some eight feet high, and then swung off and into eternity. Not a feature was contorted, not a muscle strained, but she looked like one asleep, while a look of triumphant joy was upon her face. The tree was one she could see from her window and it had doubtless been selected during the day for the purpose. The domestic had been concealed in her bosom, and she had probably taken her life in ten minutes after she escaped, as the tree was just across the street, not two hundred yards distant.

The funeral was preached yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, by Dr. T. G. Keen, and the remains were buried at the city cemetery. The affair is one sad and melancholy in all its bearings. It is sad to chronicle a death always, sadder still to record the demise of one in the bloom of youth and surrounded by all that is calculated to make life happy, but it is sadder of all to write of a death that shocks and saddens, not only a family, but an entire community—and one that is the inevitable result of a diseased brain. It is hard, very hard, to say and believe that it is "all for the best."

A difficulty occurred in the Keno room Friday night, which came very near proving a tragedy. Mr. J. M. Tandy, proprietor of the billiard room, and Mr. Louis Solomon, became involved in an altercation which resulted in the striking of the former by the latter. Bystanders interfered and Tandy was put out and the door locked. He came back to the door in a moment and upon being refused admittance fired three shots through the door at the parties who were holding it on the inside. One of the bullets passed through the clothing of Mr. Robt. Guyon, at his stomach and struck a match-box and lodged in his vest pocket. His escape was a very narrow one.

Several persons were in the room and it is almost miraculous that somebody was not hurt, as the room was a very small one. Mr. Tandy was considerably bruised about the face. Both parties to the difficulty were arrested, and tried Saturday morning. Tandy was fined $20 and costs, and Solomon $5 and costs. Several amusing incidents occurred during the fight. Some parties jumped out at the window, twelve or fifteen feet from the ground, and some who were unable to get out were frightened out of their wits.

On January 2d, 1879, Mr. Will T. Tandy and Miss Ermine E. Stoner were married. Mr. Tandy was the popular book-keeper in Buckner & Woodruff's warehouse, and was one of the steadiest, most moral, reliable and universally esteemed young men in the county. He had just attained his majority and the future looked bright and promising. Miss Stoner was just out of school, young beautiful and accomplished. They were members of two of the first families of the county, and both were consistent members of the Baptist church. Mr. Tandy built a nice new residence on South Main street and for three years or more their home was a happy one. About a year ago their first child, a bright little fellow two years old, died, and the death of the child fell with terrible force upon the mother. This, added to bad health for a time, made her moody and dejected, until last fall her friends realized that she was losing her mind. Some three months ago it became evident that her reason was gone. Every effort that a loving husband, kind friends and the best medical skill could suggest, was made to drive away her melancholy, but to no avail. She was afflicted with an insane desire to die, and neither her devotion to her husband, her love for her child, only a few months old, or the kind and sympathetic attentions of loving friends could alter her determination. She was pronounced insane, and a strict watch was kept over her and she was thwarted in several attempts to take her life. She frequently declared her intention to do so in spite of the vigilance of her friends, and last Saturday night she succeeded. It seems that she had made all her preparations for that particular night. Mr. Tandy went out after supper to attend to some business, and she had him good-bye in a most affectionate manner. All of the members of the family were absent except Mrs. Clarke, who lived with her, and Mr. J. D. Tandy, her father-in-law, an old gentleman quite feeble. About 10 o'clock she gave her baby to the nurse and in an unusually cheerful voice remarked that it was "about time for Willie to be back," and walked first to the window, as if to listen, and then to the door and before she could be intercepted quickly opened the door and darted out into the darkness. She was followed and the alarm given, but she eluded her pursuers and was soon lost in the darkness. The night was very dark, not a star shone in the heavens and her dark clothing made it impossible to see her at a distance of ten feet. In an incredibly short time fifty men with lanterns were scouring the city, searching along the banks of the river and all over the city but she could not be found.

About 1 o'clock, while Dr. F. H. Clarke and Mr. Bailey Water were looking about in the large front yard of Mrs. Wallace, almost opposite Mr. Tandy's house, Dr. Clarke saw something flash in the gleam of his lantern. He looked again, went closer, and it proved to be a ring upon the finger of the object of his search. Throwing the lantern to the limb of an apple tree, in sight of her home and in a few steps of the street, she was found and taken down—dead. She had taken a stout piece of domestic, made a loop in one end, placed it around her neck, stood upon a low limb and tied it to one above, some eight feet high, and then swung off and into eternity. Not a feature was contorted, not a muscle strained, but she looked like one asleep, while a look of triumphant joy was upon her face. The tree was one she could see from her window and it had doubtless been selected during the day for the purpose. The domestic had been concealed in her bosom, and she had probably taken her life in ten minutes after she escaped, as the tree was just across the street, not two hundred yards distant.

The funeral was preached yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, by Dr. T. G. Keen, and the remains were buried at the city cemetery. The affair is one sad and melancholy in all its bearings. It is sad to chronicle a death always, sadder still to record the demise of one in the bloom of youth and surrounded by all that is calculated to make life happy, but it is sadder of all to write of a death that shocks and saddens, not only a family, but an entire community—and one that is the inevitable result of a diseased brain. It is hard, very hard, to say and believe that it is "all for the best."

A difficulty occurred in the Keno room Friday night, which came very near proving a tragedy. Mr. J. M. Tandy, proprietor of the billiard room, and Mr. Louis Solomon, became involved in an altercation which resulted in the striking of the former by the latter. Bystanders interfered and Tandy was put out and the door locked. He came back to the door in a moment and upon being refused admittance fired three shots through the door at the parties who were holding it on the inside. One of the bullets passed through the clothing of Mr. Robt. Guyon, at his stomach and struck a match-box and lodged in his vest pocket. His escape was a very narrow one.

Several persons were in the room and it is almost miraculous that somebody was not hurt, as the room was a very small one. Mr. Tandy was considerably bruised about the face. Both parties to the difficulty were arrested, and tried Saturday morning. Tandy was fined $20 and costs, and Solomon $5 and costs. Several amusing incidents occurred during the fight. Some parties jumped out at the window, twelve or fifteen feet from the ground, and some who were unable to get out were frightened out of their wits.

On January 2d, 1879, Mr. Will T. Tandy and Miss Ermine E. Stoner were married. Mr. Tandy was the popular book-keeper in Buckner & Woodruff's warehouse, and was one of the steadiest, most moral, reliable and universally esteemed young men in the county. He had just attained his majority and the future looked bright and promising.

Miss Stoner was just out of school, young beautiful and accomplished. They were members of two of the first families of the county, and both were consistent members of the Baptist church. Mr. Tandy built a nice new residence on South Main street and for three years or more their home was a happy one. About a year ago their first child, a bright little fellow two years old, died, and the death of the child fell with terrible force upon the mother. This, added to bad health for a time, made her moody and dejected, until last fall her friends realized that she was losing her mind. Some three months ago it became evident that her reason was gone. Every effort that a loving husband, kind friends and the best medical skill could suggest, was made to drive away her melancholy, but to no avail. She was afflicted with an insane desire to die, and neither her devotion to her husband, her love for her child, only a few months old, or the kind and sympathetic attentions of loving friends could alter her determination. She was pronounced insane, and a strict watch was kept over her and she was thwarted in several attempts to take her life. She frequently declared her intention to do so in spite of the vigilance of her friends, and last Saturday night she succeeded. It seems that she had made all her preparations for that particular night. Mr. Tandy went out after supper to attend to some business, and she had him good-bye in a most affectionate manner. All of the members of the family were absent except Mrs. Clarke, who lived with her, and Mr. J. D. Tandy, her father-in-law, an old gentleman quite feeble. About 10 o'clock she gave her baby to the nurse and in an unusually cheerful voice remarked that it was "about time for Willie to be back," and walked first to the window, as if to listen, and then to the door and before she could be intercepted quickly

WEEKLY TOBACCO MARKET.

Inspector's monthly report of the Hopkinsville tobacco market, Jan. 1st, 1883.

Actual receipts for past month... 241
Total receipts for the year... 291
Sales for past month... 141
Sales for the year... 141
Shipments for the past month... 71
Shipments for the year... 141
Stock on hand... 241

D. F. Smirason, Inspector.

Inspector's weekly report Hopkinsville tobacco market, week ending Jan. 4, 1883.

Receipts for the week... 41 hds
Receipts for the year... 461 hds
Sales for the week... 43 hds
Sales for the year... 289 hds

Abernathy & Co., sold Jan. 4th, 1883, 11 hds, as follows:

5 hds, lugs $3 50, 3 75, 3 65, 4 00, 3 50.
2 hds, low leaf, $4 50, 4 50.
4 hds, medium long leaf, $7 65, 7 00, 6 35, 6 10.
No flat tobaccos have made their appearance on the breaks.

We quote lugs, $3 50 to 4 00.
Low leaf, $4 50, to 4 25.
Medium leaf, $5 50, to 7 00.
Long tobaccos in demand from $6 50, 8 00.

Our sale of January 3rd showed us material change in prices. Probably lugs were a shade firmer under stronger competition.

Sales by Buckner & Woodruff, Jan. 3, 1883, 6 hds, common leaf. Market continues about same prices. Lugs little higher.

Opening of the Colored Public Schools.

The new building for the Colored public schools, on Jackson street, has been finished, and the schools opened Jan. 1st, with over two hundred pupils in attendance. The building is a two story frame, and has four large and well arranged rooms furnished in good style. Prof. A. S. Green, of Nashville, has been elected Superintendent and Principal; Mrs. M. E. Morgan, Miss Susie Hillman, and Miss Jennie Bell, are the other members of the faculty. The attendance is constantly increasing, and the building is already filled to its comfortable capacity. The colored people are to be congratulated upon the excellent school facilities they now have. We are glad to see them manifesting so praiseworthy an interest in the cause of education.

Police News.
DECEMBER ARRESTS.
Branch of peace... 12
Drunkness... 9
Charged with murder... 4
Disorderly... 4
Firing corporals... 3
Attempted arson... 2
Malicious cutting... 1
Total... 35

RETAIL MARKET REPORT

CORRECTED WEEKLY BY Burbridge Bros.

Pork	8 to 10c
Bacon, Shoulders	12 to 15c
Sides	20c
Hams, country	20c
Hams, sugar-cured	18 to 20c
Flour, choice	$5.00
" good	$5.00
Molasses choice N.O.	75 to 80c
" in half bbls	60 to 67c
Maple Syrup	$1.25
Golden Byp, pure	55 to 60c
Candles	18 to 20c
Butter	20 to 25c
Eggs	25c
Hominy, gallon	2c
Corn meal	80c
Clover Seed	$6.50
Cot nails, rate	$4.00
Lard, country	15c
Lard, snow-flake	15c
Beans, navy	$4.00
" dried	6c
Coffee, Rio	10 to 12c
" Java	25 to 30c
" Mexican or Cardova	15 to 20c
Cheese, factory	15 to 20c
" Young American	3c
Rice, Carolina	8 to 10c
Sugar, N. O.	9 to 10c
" granulated	11 to 11c
Salt, 7 lb. bbl.	$2.25
Potatoes, Irish	75c
" Sweet	75c
Black-eyed Peas, bu.	2.00 to $2.50
Mackerel, kit.	$1.00 to 1.25
Lemons, doz.	30 to 40c
Oranges, doz.	50 to 75c

CANNED GOODS.

Corn, doz.	$1.25 to $1.75
Tomatoes, doz.	$1.25 to $1.50
Pickles, gal.	50 to 75c
Honey, extract lb.	15c
" comb	16 to 20c
Chewing Tobacco, lb.	55 to $1.25
Teas, choice to fancy	75 to $1.00
" mixed to good	60 to 75c
Aze grease	4c
Coal oil	15 to 25c

SPECIAL LOCALS.

Strayed or Stolen.

From Reynolds' lot, in Hopkinsville, Ky., on Monday evening, January 1, 1883, one Bay Horse, about 15 hands high, short mane and tail, white saddle mark on left side, and very heavy set. He was saddled with a Morgantree saddle, new large stirrups, new leathers and new girth. The saddle seat had been lately repaired with new leathers and new rings. A liberal reward will be paid for his return to me at Bellevue, Ky. J. R. GRISMAN.

LOST.

Somewhere between the Clarksville and Nashville roads, a large bay horse with a star in his forehead. Was in good condition when lost. Was last seen near Wood's mill, Friday before Christmas. Any information at this office concerning him will be thankfully received, and suitably rewarded. ANN ALEXANDER, col.

PAWNEE AND FARMER'S BONE CAN MAKE THE BONE

Excelsior Planing Mills, FORBES & GANT, Proprietors.

We have now on hand a full stock of the following articles which we propose to sell at the lowest possible prices for CASH.

Rough and Dressed Walnut, Poplar Lumber, Sash, Doors, Blinds, Locks, Lime, Laths, Doors, Mouldings, Hinges, Hair &c.

ORU EXCELSIOR WAGONS TOBACCO HOGSHEADS

IN THE LARGEST QUANTITIES EVER MADE IN THE CITY. Contract For Building Solicited And Specifications Strictly Complied With.

Wishing you a happy and prosperous year, and asking the aid of your patronage to make ours the same we are Respectfully,

FORBES & GANT.

ESTRAY NOTICE.

Taken up as a stray, by David G. Tuck, living near Lawrence, in Christian county, on the 20th day of December, 1882.

One Red Cow and Red Calf.

Said cow aged about ten years, living two white feet, and which I have valued at twenty dollars. Witness my hand this 8th day of December, 1882.

J. B. POLLARD, J. P. C. C.

Vick's Floral Guide

For 1883 is an elegant book of 150 pages, 3 colored plates of flowers and vegetables, and more than 1000 illustrations of the choicest flowers, plants and vegetables, and is a treasure for growing. It is handsome enough for the center table or a holiday present. Send on your name and Post Office address, with 10 cents, and I will send you a copy, postage paid. This is not a quarter of its cost. It is printed in both English and German. If you afterwards order seeds deduct the 10 cents. The Vick's seeds are the best in the world. The Floral Guide will tell you how to get them and grow them.

